

Whitescreen.dev – Turn Your Screen Into a Practical Everyday Utility

Sometimes the simplest tools are the most powerful. Whitescreen.dev is a clean, browser-based solution that turns your screen into a single solid color — perfect for a wide range of tasks like cleaning, lighting, testing, and even visual relaxation.

A Functional Tool for Daily Digital Needs

Whether you're working, creating, studying, or just tidying up, Whitescreen.dev offers a distraction-free fullscreen interface with just one purpose: to display pure color. It's incredibly lightweight and works across all devices, including smartphones, tablets, and desktops.

Common uses include:

- ✨ Spotting dust and smudges for easy cleaning
 - 🛠 Testing monitor quality (dead pixels, backlight bleeding)
 - 💡 Providing light for virtual meetings or streams
 - 📷 Creating seamless visual backgrounds
 - 📖 Reducing visual clutter for better concentration

One Link = One Color

Whitescreen.dev offers immediate access to nine different color screens — no extra clicks or setup required:
